Marie McDonald, Hollywood Actress Is Kidnapped Today

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 4 (AP) — Actress Marie (The Body) McDonald possibly has been kidnapped from her home, Valley Division police reported today.

The blonde, former wife of wealthy shoe manufacturer Harry Karl was discovered missing from her home early this morning when her mother received an anonymous telephone call from a man who said:

"We have Marie. No harm will come to her if you don't call police."

Karl also was called at about the same time and police found a note in the mailbox at Miss McDonald's home saying, in substance the same thing.

The note was composed of printed and clipped words from newspapers and warned against notifying police.

Miss McDonald, 32, lived with her 4-month old daughter and servants in a one-story ranch house in the San Fernando Valley community of Encino.

Police Inspector Henry Kerr said the Federal Bureau of Investigation had been notified.

Kerr said actor Michael Wilding, estranged husband of actress Elizabeth Taylor, arrived at the McDonald home shortly after police began their investigation. He was questioned by police.

Wilding has been seen with Miss McDonald since the break-up of his marriage with Miss Taylor.

Miss McDonald last was seen when she went to bed Thursday night.

Mrs. Marie, Tuboni, her mother, told him I was and then he said, 'We have Marie. She won't be harmed.'

"When the man hung up, I called at my daughter's house and had a servant check Marie's bedroom. She was gone. Then I telephoned police."

Karl said he also was called. He said a man told him, "We have your wife. She won't be harmed for money." He was warned not to notify police.

The car of the actress was missing, but Mrs. Tuboni said she believed her daughter told her it was being repaired.

There were two servants and a watchdog at the house.

Miss McDonald was awarded a divorce from Karl in July after testifying her marriage was "impossible."

Under terms of a property agreement described as a "million dollar settlement" she was provided with $3,500 monthly support for herself and two adopted children, Denise and Harrison, both 6, who reside with her.

The couple was wed nine years ago and separated twice in their stormy marriage. They were divorced in 1955 and Karl followed his wife to Paris where they reconciled before the divorce became final.

Western Arrives Tomorrow With Red Towel Of Revenge

The Thoroughbreds of Murray State may produce the shocker of the nation Saturday night when the Hilltoppers' Western Kentucky Hilltoppers hit town waving the "red towel of revenge."

Murray will witness two important wins over highly regarded Mississippi State and OVC foe Middle Tennessee — directly behind them, does not plan to slow their blistering pace for a second against the barn storming Toppers who have already played and beaten top ranked opponents from San Francisco to New York.

But to beat Western, the Breds will have to do it squarely. There is no hope for Ed Diddle's wreckers to be caught napping. That went out last year when the Murrayans plastered them twice.

For a stranger unfamiliar with the traditional rivalry of the Racer-Hilltopper series, Western would be picked murder Rex Alexander's cagers because of the sharp contrast in the caliber of each school's schedule. While Murray has met such awkward foes as West Texas State, New Mexico, Hardin's Seminars and Middle Tennessee, Western has tested the pride of the East and the best of the West.

But with this annual tussle, all record books of past accomplishments are as void as Confederate money. And no one knows that any better than the officials of both schools. It wasn't just once that a pair of Diddle's m.o. trusted lieutenants happened to be in the stands as far back as the Racer-West Texas encounter. Since that fateful night when Murray lost the valuable services of John Powless, the team has definitely improved — and the mighty Westerns have dropped two games (it doesn't matter to whom).

With 11 games played, all of Murray's starters have passed the century mark in scoring. Quintan Sullins, the 6-9 Arkansas Splinter, leads with 175 points. Terry Darnell has shown the greatest point increase. After the early contests he has ventured and perfected that to score more you have to shoot more bringing his total to 132 including 49 field goals.

Sullins sprained an ankle in the Middle Tennessee game and although he came back in to finish, it has started swelling. This would be a costly blow Saturday, for Big Sullins is the only Bred able to match the towering Topper center, Ralph Crosthwaite also 6-9. The latter was a demon in his freshman year and it was his last second basket that nipped

Murray in a near riot here two years ago. He was ineligible last season.

However it is not just Crosthwaite that makes the Hilltoppers feared, they are strong everywhere with one of the best benches in the nation.

They have tall forwards and speedy aggressive guards. Owen Layson, 6-9 and Eric Back, 6-6 provide a shifty fast break punch from the back court and are deadly on set shots. Both juniors, they have teamed together since their freshman season at Middle-town (Ohio) High School. Another skilled ball handler and long shot artist is Ronnie Clark from Henderson. Clark is so valuable that Diddle has shifted both Back and Layson to forwards at various times.

Search Narrows For Mad Bomber

NEW YORK, Jan. 4 (AP) — Police focused their search on suburban Westchester County today for New York's mad bomber whose homemade explosives have injured 18 persons, killed one and touched off a nationwide bomb scare epidemic.

Centering of the manhunt on Westchester, the nation's wealthiest county, was disclosed Thursday by New York police after a conference with officials from 39 Westchester police departments. White Plains, the county seat, was mentioned as the likely residence of the elusive terrorist, mainly on the basis of six of his letters which bore that city's postmark.

It also was disclosed that New York City detectives have been in White Plains, 15 miles north of New York, for the last 18 months, comparing handwriting on thousands of legal documents and other papers with notes written by the mad bomber.

While police concentrated on their search on Westchester County, frantic calls continued to harass enforcement authorities, school officials and others across the nation.

Apparently inspired by the confusion induced here by the bomber's latest two farays last week, school children, plagued police with a series of bomb scares in New York, New Jersey and Connecticut.

Bomb threats were made to ten New York schools. Without exception, police searched the schools but found no bombs.

Other threats resulted in dismissal of classes for the second straight day at Weaver High School in Hartford and at Bayonne, N. J. High School.

Bess Truman Breaks An Ankle

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., Jan. 4 (AP) — Mrs. Bess Truman, wife of former President Harry S. Truman, was hospitalized today with a broken left ankle received in a fall at home.

A doctor said it was a simple fracture, and that Mrs. Truman would be hospitalized only a few days.

She was injured in a fall on a stair on the second floor of her home Wednesday, and it first was thought that it was only a bad sprain. X-rays disclosed the fracture.

President Of Austria Dies

VIENNA, Jan. 4 (AP) — Theodor Koerner, Austria's first directly elected president, died at his suburban home today. He was 83.

An official communiqué said the president died at 3:15 p.m. (9:15 a.m. EST) at his villa at Granzing, a suburb of Vienna.

The communiqué gave no cause of death. But a government source said Koerner died after he suffered a stroke.

Koerner had suffered a slight stroke last July 23, a few days after he opened the Salzburg Music Festival. He broke off his vacation in the Styrian village of Mautersberg to return to Vienna for medical treatment.

He recovered after weeks of serious illness, and eventually resumed his duties as president. Koerner died four months before he would have completed his six years as constitutional president. He was elected May 27, 1951. After his illness, he had made known he did not intend to run for re-election.

His death came as the two big government parties were making plans for the election of a new president.

Koerner was Austria's second president after World War II, but the first to be elected by popular vote.

Problems Of Minister And Laymen Of Today Discussed

Rev. Howard Nichols

Rev. Howard Nichols, pastor of the First Christian Church, presented an interesting and unique program yesterday before the Murray Rotary Club.

Rev. Nichols "painted" a picture of the modern American clergyman that has grown in the minds of many people over the last several years.

He discussed at length the many problems that have arisen for both the clergyman and the layman.

He referred to several novels published in the past twelve years that held as their central character the minister, an athletic young man, firm of purpose, but with an unobtrusive sense of humor, who invariably became an overwhelming success.

He mentioned that few of the minister-friends of his, fell into this category.

Ministers have real problems, he said, in the modern society in which they move. There is the problem of success, he said. Success by modern business standards indicates growth. Successful ministers, in the eyes of the public, he said, are those who make great growth in churches. A minister who stays at a small rural church may be doing a great work, he said, but in the eyes of the world, success has evaded him.

Ministers also face the problem of becoming a specialist, he said. Many incidents arise where ministers are expected to take action, merely because they are ministers. The cloak of religion falls only on them, he intimated.

Rev. Nichols listed some of the problems which are faced also by laymen and the views that others living have forced upon them.

He concluded his address with the remark that ministers would like to be the pastors of men's minds, and lead them in a spiritual way.

Rev. Nichols said that the calling to the ministry is a great privilege and that he would not trade the free Christian pulpit for any other profession.

Rev. Nichols was introduced by Rev. Paul T. Lyles, pastor of the First Methodist Church.

Several visiting Rotarians were present for the meeting. Ted Lawson was a guest of Tom Wincheater and Brooks Jones was a guest of Paul Lyles.

Guests of Robert Perry were Vojislav S. Mijuskovic and Dr. J. W. Whitehouse of the University of Kentucky.

Dr. Alsop To Be Speaker For Delta

The Delta Department of the Murray Woman's Club will have its regular meeting at the club house on Tuesday, January 8, at 7:30 o'clock in the evening with Miss Rubie Smith as the program leader.

Dr. Robert Alsop, associate professor of education at Murray State College, will be the guest speaker on the subject, "My Child and Reading."

The guest speaker has had teaching experience in grade, high school and college. He was supervisor of a child's study clinic at the University of Missouri where his graduate work in education was done. At the present time he teaches reading and psychology at Murray State.

Mrs. A. C. Sanders, chairman of the department, said the program is of much interest to many people; therefore this will be an open meeting and anyone who is interested is urged to be present.

The hostesses will be Mrs. Ralph McCusick, Mrs. Walter Baker, Mrs. A. B. Austin and Mrs. James Blalock.

FRIDAY — JANUARY 4, 1957

INCREASE IN CRIME

J. Edgar Hoover, head of FBI, says there was a greater increase in major crime in 1956 than any previous year and that juveniles accounted for much of the increase.

In reading his report, which was one in a series of year-end studies prepared for United Press, we are reminded of the advice given a young father by an old man in regards to whipping his son. The old man said: "You can take your choice; you will either whip him now in order to control him or some day you will have to strike him in self-defense."

We have had so much scientific advice in the last generation on how to raise children without punishing them that we find ourselves being imposed upon, and the time has come when we must strike back or be overcome. One reason criminals are so bold is because we consider too many of them mental cases. We put them in mental institutions for the vilest crimes when some of them deserve the electric chair.

Also we have become hardened to crime. There has been so much violence in the world since Hitler marched into Poland in 1939 that we don't get excited over crime, and insult to dignity.

This week fire-bugs have been busy in California and Connecticut. In the Malibu residential area of Hollywood brush fires set by arsonists have destroyed more than $200,000,000.00 worth of property, while in Hartford, Connecticut, two churches have been destroyed at a loss of seven or eight million dollars.

Already we are accepting these crimes as the work of maniacs and a man hunt has started to apprehend them. Will they be hanged or will they even be given long prison sentences. Not if they are declared insane.

They will be treated, and probably released in a year, or so, only to possibly do the same thing over.

There has never been a time when there were as many sex crimes as now and Mr. Hoover tells us most of them are committed by persons who are habitual criminals.

We never thought we would live to see this particular type of criminal appear on television, but it has become popular in recent weeks.

Just a few days ago a seventeen year old boy, who confessed to raping three women, and who was charged with five additional attacks, was shown on television on his way to the state mental hospital at Nashville.

And two or three weeks ago one of the leading news commentators interviewed a fellow with his face masked who confessed to having been molesting children for the last twenty years. Now, he says, he is receiving treatment.

It would be ungratified to oppose treatment for mentally diseased persons, but the way crime is increasing indicates we should supplement the treatment with a new supply of electric chairs.

For we believe, civilization itself depends upon our ability to cope with criminals who are robbing us of our substance, killing anyone and everybody who gets in their way, and depriving our children with alcoholics and narcotics.

Treating mental disorders is one thing, but dealing with them after crime has been committed is some thing else. We'd better listen to men like Hoover, as well as to mental specialists.

Four National League Stars Sign Baseball Contract

By TIM MORIARTY

United Press Sports Writer

Four of the National League's brightest stars, including one who now shines for the Cardinals and a "big one that got away," signed 1957 contracts today in baseball's drive to prepare for spring training.

All-star third baseman Kenny Boyer of the Cardinals, outfielder Bill Virdon, who left the Cardinals for the Pirates and finished second in the batting race, home run slugger Ernie Banks of the Cubs, and returning southpaw Johnny Podres of the Dodgers were the latest to come to terms.

Boyer got an unspecified "increase in pay," as well he might after a year in which he batted .306 (fifth best in the league), drove in 98 runs, clubbed 26 homers, and stole eight bases in 11 tries.

But, Card General Manager Frank Lane, who already has signed parts from 19 players, emphasized: "Ken hasn't approached his peak performance yet. He has a tremendous natural potential."

Lane is not so glib, of course, about Virdon, the 1955 "rookie of the year" whom he traded in 1956 to the Pirates for outfielder Bobby De Graaf.

Virdon finished second to Hank Aaron of the Braves in the NL batting chase with a .319 mark and had 10 homers and 46 runs batted in. Virdon agreed to Pirate terms in a visit to Pittsburgh for a television appearance.

Banks first Cub to sign, was the first Cub to sign for the coming season. Injuries to his right arm and an infected hand hampered him in 1955, forcing him to miss 18 games in August after setting a Cub team record of 424 consecutive games. Banks hit 298 with 25 homers and 85 runs batted in.

The Dodgers, who may have lost the last World Series for lack of a good left-handed pitcher, welcomed back 1955 series hero Podres with open arms.

To Try Again For Top Spot After Losses

By JOHN GRIFFIN

United Press Sports Writer

Wake Forest and Colorado, whose unhappy fate it was to lose to the nation's two best teams in holiday tournaments, bid again today for national basketball recognition as they got back on the winning trail.

Wake Forest, bounding back from a loss to second-ranked North Carolina in the final round of the Dixie Classic, runs its season record to 9-2, Thursday night with an impressive 72-54 victory over George Washington at Arlington, Va.

And Colorado, soundly defeated by national leader Kansas in the Big Seven tournament finals, pushed its record to an even better 9-2 by whipping Miami of Florida, 73-66, at Miami.

Deacons Show Power
Wake Forest, already ranked No. 15 nationally, showed all-around power in leading almost all the way against George Washington. Jump-shooting Jack Williams popped in 22 points to set the pace, while Jack Jolly led the losing Colonials with 16.

At Miami, a city that also proved hospitable to Colorado's football team earlier this week in the Orange Bowl victory over Clemson, the Buffaloes nearly blew a 22-point lead before downing Miami.

In other leading games Thursday night:
Duquesne confounded the "experts" by whipping Dayton, 70-71, at Dayton as Dick Ricketts led the way with 23 points—an astounding switch from last week's 19 points. Dayton beat Duquesne by 38 points; Rice opened its Southwest Conference season with a 53-39 victory over Texas A&M as 6-10 Temple Tucker scored 18 and 6-9 Tom Holtz added 16.

VITAMIN C IMPORTANT IN WINTER MENUS

During the winter months when fresh vegetables are not so generally used, it is especially important that Vitamin C be provided in some other way. Because it is not stored in the body, it is necessary to include it in every day's meals.

Fresh oranges, frozen concentrated orange juice and canned orange juice are excellent sources of Vitamin C. The amount being greater in the fresh fruit, slightly less in the frozen, and canned juice rating lowest, says Mrs. Pearl Hank, UK Extension foods specialist.

Tomato juice is also a good source of Vitamin C, but it contains only half as much as does orange juice. Hence twice as much must be served.

HERE'S HOW... MAKE A GUN CASE

A safe carrier protects prize guns from injury. Two of each of the parts, except D, should be made if the case is for two guns. For one gun, one of each part is made.

Use 1 by 10-inch lumber for D and C. On each part C trace the outline of the gun, and cut out the shapes with a coping saw. Sand the pieces smooth and round the sharp edges of the cut-outs. Attach an 18-inch piano hinge, using 3/4-inch screws, recessing the plate.

Make the frames, B, mitering the corners and fastening them with glue and 4-penny finishing nails. Use picture frame clamps until the glue has set; then chisel out a recess on one long edge to accommodate the hinge plate.

The hardwood plywood outer face, part A, is attached with glue and 3/4-inch No. 8 screws. Sink the brads and glue holes with wood putty.

Join the two parts C to part D, one on each side, using wood glue and 1 1/4-inch flathead wood screws. Countersink the screw heads.

When all glued parts have set, fasten the hinges to the lid. Use four small hasps with twist staples to secure the lid. Add a luggage handle, as shown.

Finish the case by varnishing. Felt may be used for lining. Cut-outs may be made also for cleaning rods, an oil can, etc.

WISE MEN SEEK JESUS

Matthew 2:1-12

At least forty days after the birth of the Saviour, these wise men came out of an obscure past and appeared on the stage for one brief scene and then disappeared forever. From their visit we can learn some interesting and instructive lessons.

I. The Search, Matthew 2:1-2. "When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judah in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem." The Scriptures do not disclose their number, their names, or the particular country from which they came. They represented the very best of the old-world culture, learning, religion, and civilization. They were students of astronomy and kindred sciences. They were also men of rank, wealth, and influence.

Their earnestness of purpose was revealed by their long and dangerous journey from their far-off homes in the East to the city of Jerusalem.

These men were familiar with the Jewish Scriptures and knew that the Messiah was to come. They were looking for His coming with keen interest and great anticipation. Pleased with their attitude, God gave them a special sign to lead them to the Lord Jesus.

It was that of a star (Numbers 24:17). When they beheld this particular star, they concluded that this prophecy had been fulfilled, so they proceeded to Jerusalem and inquired where He was, with a view to finding Him and rendering to Him due homage.

II. The Scriptures, Matthew 2:3-6. "When the wise men arrived in Jerusalem and inquired about the newborn King, the whole city was troubled. Herod, the usurper, was greatly disturbed lest he should lose his throne and his power. Naturally, the least disturbance would arouse the fears of this ruthless and ungodly ruler, because many of his subjects hated him so much that they would have been glad if all his power had been taken away from him. The citizens of Jerusalem were troubled also because they feared a disturbance which might result in the Roman government imposing extra burdens upon them. But, primarily, both Herod and the people were troubled on account of their sins."

III. The Schemer, Matthew 2:7-8. "Troubled by the news that a King had been born, whom he naturally suspected of being his own rival, the cruel and unscrupulous Herod proceeded to work out a scheme whereby he might do away with the Herod-King. Feigning respect and love for the newborn King, Herod sent the wise men to Bethlehem with instructions to locate Him, and then to return and inform him of so. His whereabouts. Herod's hatred was concealed under hypocritical words. Pretending that he desired the information in order that he might go and worship Him, his only desire was to put him to death. Knowing his evil intention, God thwarted his purpose."

IV. The Star, Matthew 2:9-10. "With a view to obeying the command of Herod, the wise men started immediately for Bethlehem in search of the young King. As they left the presence of Herod, the star which they had seen in the East again appeared to them and led them to the very spot where the Lord Jesus was. The reappearance of the star gave them fresh evidence of true and safe guidance, and they rejoiced exceedingly. As those searchers followed the light which they had, they received additional light. It is well for us to remember that this is always the method by which God is pleased to lead His people. As they use the light they have, He gives them more light, Y. The Success, Matthew 2:11-12.

Upon reaching their destination, the wise men entered the house and found the Child and His mother, Mary. They were filled with joy when at last they stood in the presence of the young Child. They were sure that He was the One for whom they were searching. They rejoiced with exceeding great joy for at last they had found the King Whom they had come to worship. Recognizing the Christ, they acknowledged His deity by falling down and worshipping Him. Observe, now, that they did not worship Mary, but the Child Jesus. After they had worshipped Him in whom the living God had become incarnate, they offered their treasure, and presented Him their gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. They simply brought and gave to Christ the very best they had, which is exactly what all of us should do.

What are we to show our gratitude for the salvation which we have received from a Christ? Instead of their going back and reporting to Herod as he had anticipated, God spoke to the wise men as they went away, and gave them a personal and secret commission which thwarted all of the wicked plans of the cruel king. Hence they returned home without seeing Herod again. Enraged at their departure, Herod ordered all male children in Bethlehem under two years of age be put to death, but the Lord Jesus was not in. Instead, Mary and Joseph took Him to Egypt and resided there for a time.
